

Orienteering - Senior

Names _____

- 1 How many snails (awake and asleep) are on the Peter Pan Statue ? _____
- 2 How does the statue in the Knot Garden help us to tell the time?

- 3 What is another nickname for the Horopito bush? _____
How did it get its nickname? _____
- 4 How many people does it take to hug all around the Big Tree ? _____
How can you tell the age of a tree? _____
- 5 Describe 3 ways that being hairy can help a cactus survive in a desert:

- 6 What large African mammal is in the scientific name of this tree?
_____ Tree's Name : _____
- 7 How many plants in the Herb Garden can be used for medicines?
- 8 My name sounds like a monster, but I'm not the fire-breathing kind, I fly above the water and have a bright red behind.
Who am I? _____
- 9 How many fairies can you count on the Wendy Statue? _____
- 10 Standing by the pond, what colours of flowers can you see?

11

Why does being small and spread out help plants survive in the mountains?

12

Standing on the top step, which direction is the Croque-o-Dile Cafe?

NORTH / EAST / SOUTH / WEST

13

Sitting on the bench, look behind you... Poking out from down below, some native mapou try to grow. What colour are their stems?

14

If we were in Australia what marsupials would live in these trees?

Which furry Australian animal is a pest in NZ?

15

Which 2 native parrots are in each side of the large aviary and what are their natural habitats?

_____ live in _____

_____ live in _____ 16

Why are cockatoos NOT recommended as pets?

17

How many plants are indigenous (native) to Southern Africa?

What does 'biodiversity' mean?

18

What is the difference between the leaves of the lancewood tree?

Bottom leaves are _____

Top leaves are _____

19

What colour(s) are the bananas growing in the Tropical Glasshouse ?

20

How do these carnivorous plants catch bugs ?
