Dunedin city council submissions.

My name is Charles. I am a year six student at Portobello School. I would like you to fix the road going up to the Albatross colony.

This stretch of road is dangerous and tourists speed on it. People could get seriously hurt! I think you should put a speed bump down to make it more safe. The Albatross colony gets 150,000 tourists every year. This is big money for Dunedin!

If you don't fix this road we may lose tourists and if you do fix this road you may get even more tourists than we're getting right now which means even more money for Dunedin it's great right!

I hope you fix it.

Sincerely,
Charles.
