Dear Chris,

Thank you for your email of 3 November 2015 requesting information about trespass notices issued by the Dunedin City Council.

Your request has been considered under the provisions of the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987 (LGOIMA) and the following response is provided.

I have repeated your questions and used your numbering to give context to our response.

Question 1

The current number of people trespassed and/or banned from the Dunedin central city library, Moana Pool, and the Civic Centre.

DCC Response

Currently there are 70 people trespassed from the Dunedin Central Library, 11 from Moana Pool and three from the Civic Centre.

Question 2

A breakdown showing the numbers of trespass orders/bans in each of the last five years, and the reasons for each.

DCC Response

The table below provides the number of trespass notices issued by the Dunedin Public Library, Moana Pool and the Dunedin City Council (Civic Centre) over the past five years. Trespass notices are generally issued for a two year period. We do not hold records for trespass notices which were issued relating to the Civic Centre which have expired.

2013	42	1	2
2014	25	2	2

We also do not hold records of the reasons current trespass notices were issued for the Civic Centre.
