Hi Libby,

You recently asked if DCC had adopted the living wage.

In 2012 DCC moved its salary structure so that all staff were receiving a wage that was at or above the level of a living wage as it was then defined. We did so after consultation with staff.

We recently took steps to lift lowest wages back to the updated living wage level again earlier this year. One union has agreed to this in the collective bargaining process and the others are in negotiations at present.

Regards,
