Dear Ms Kerr,

I am writing to acknowledge your request below and also to inform you that the trading name of Fireworks International is "Marketus International trading as Fireworks International".

This company is easy to find on the NZ companies register.

As far as I can tell the outstanding questions in your request below are:

4. Does the business known as “Fireworks International” have the necessary approved handler certification ?
5. Does DCC hold any other information about the business “Fireworks International” that can be made publicly available ?

I will log these remaining questions and respond to them within the statutory time frame.

Regards
