Dear [REDACTED]

I refer to your e-mail of 22 June requesting the following information:

"Kia ora, do you have any record of payment for services contracted between the DCC and van Brandenburg Architects and Ian Taylor Animation Research with respect to the advertised white waterside building that was presented by the DCC as related to its Provisional Growth Fund application? I may not have the names of those businesses quite right. If there has been any such payment, can you please provide whatever details are in the public domain of the work undertaken and the date the work was requested and completed."

In response to your request I advise as follows:

- Payments: as set out in the table below:

Animation Research Ltd.	Harbourside connection visuals <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Developing harbourside connection animations and visuals</li> </ul>	$20,000+gst	Received 12/12/17
Architecture Van Brandenburg	Toitu Gallery Install <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Model bases for community exhibition at Toitu Museum</li> </ul>	$6,932.20+gst	Received 11/01/18
	Harbourside connection design <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Developing a model of the Dunedin harbourside bridge concept design, for engineering assessment, which can be costed by a Quantity Surveyor and be made available for public release.</li> <li>• Showcasing the project in the AVB exhibition centre in G Shed in Steamer Basin in November 2017.</li> <li>• Design and presentation work of the Harbourside vision in conjunction with Animation Research Limited.</li> </ul>	$95,000+gst	Received 06/12/17

Please note that these payments are not for the design but for the models which are currently on display in the Civic Centre Plaza.

Attached for you information is a link to the details which are currently in the public domain. The waterfront models and video are on display at the Waterfront Exhibition Centre, Civic Centre and information can be found on the following link: <https://www.dunedin.govt.nz/council/council-projects/waterfront>

[REDACTED]
The work was contracted on 9 August 2017 and completed on 20 December 2017; subsequently requested model bases for Toitu Gallery were completed in January 2018.
