Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your information request below. I apologise for the delay in responding to you.

I advise that postal voting was optional until 1989. At the time of the Local Government reorganisation in 1989, the Local Government Commission decreed that the local elections would be conducted by postal vote. Postal voting has been in place since 1989, and has not required a decision to be made at subsequent elections.

I hope this is of assistance.

Kind regards
