INTRODUCTION

- [1] This is an application by Ampt Entertainment Limited for the renewal of an alcohol off-licence for the premises situated at 153 Stuart Street, Dunedin, and known as "Biggies Pizza & Suburbia".
- [2] The current licence only allows the sale of off-licence alcohol to take place when food is ordered remotely and delivered by the Applicant. They are seeking a review of this condition to allow the off-licence sale of alcohol to take place over the bar at the premises.
- [3] Public notice of the application did not attract any opposition.
- [4] While the Police and Medical Officer of Health did not oppose the renewal of the licence the Licensing Inspector requested the application to be heard by the Committee because the change is significantly different to what is currently allowed.

BACKGROUND

- [5] The Applicant sought an off-licence in 2020 to mitigate the effects of the changes resulting from the coronavirus pandemic and the losses suffered as a result. Initially the Applicant sought to sell off-licence alcohol to people purchasing takeaway food across the bar as well as to people ordering food for delivery to their address.

- [6] After a public hearing the off-licence was granted for the delivery of alcohol with food. No over the bar sales were allowed. However, it was noted in the decision issued with the initial licence that the matter of alcohol being sold over the bar with food being picked up could be reviewed at the renewal of the licence.
- [7] The Applicant has asked that this be reviewed now.

Ms Millard

- [8] Ms Millard is a director and shareholder of the applicant business. She said last year when the initial application for the off-licence was made it went through a very thorough process. With the arrival of Covid-19 they looked at diversifying their business and decided to add alcohol to their takeaway options. They intended for the alcohol to be available for pick-up orders as well as deliveries.
- [9] She said at the last hearing it was accepted that there could be a review of the conditions after the first twelve months because it was decided alcohol could only be sold as part of the delivery option. There have been no issues with how it has operated so they would like that condition reviewed with the view to allowing pick-up off-licence sales.
- [10] In answer to a question clarifying when alcohol could be sold with this licence, Ms Millard emphasised that off-licence alcohol could only be purchased with a food order. They would not undertake any alcohol promotions and the only advertising will be on their website. The closing time for the off-licence would be 10.00 pm at the latest but the duty manager may stop sales earlier if it is a busy night. Generally, the last pick-up order is completed by 8.00 pm.
- [11] The amount of alcohol able to be purchased is dependent on the dollar amount of food purchased. This would be exactly the same as for over-the-counter off-licence sales.
- [12] The Committee asked how orders would be managed if a person had been drinking at the bar and then orders takeaway food with alcohol. Ms Millard said that the people drinking in the bar are being watched by staff so if someone orders food to takeaway, they have been observed in the time leading up to the order and the duty manager would keep an eye on them while the food is being prepared. As for a person who appears to be becoming intoxicated, they will not be served alcohol, but they will be welcome to order food.
- [13] Sgt Paulin asked if the high prices was their best risk management option. Ms Millard said both the high prices and the fact that off-licence alcohol could only be purchased with food was a sound risk management option. If a person wanted cheap alcohol they could go to the nearby supermarket or bottle store where it could be purchased without food. Ms Millard said they had no intention of selling cheap or large volumes of alcohol. Ms Millard confirmed that people could walk in to buy off-licence alcohol, but it could only be with a food order.
- [14] Mr Mole asked if they considered their location as being in a high-density area for off-licences. Ms Millard said that was the case, but they would only sell when food was ordered, and the available alcohol is not cheap.

Mr Mole

- [15] Mr Mole a Licensing Inspector. He said the change to the conditions on the licence made it different to what was discussed at the last hearing. He requested this be determined at a hearing so the Applicant had the opportunity to explain the differences.

- [16] He said he remained fearful of another off-licence in the centre of town and what could happen if the premises changed ownership. He said he was concerned it would become another venue where people could stop and buy alcohol, but Ms Millard has confirmed off-licence alcohol would only be sold with food. Mr Mole said he had confidence in the applicant.
- [17] In reply to a query from the Committee, Mr Mole said the Dunedin Local Alcohol Policy limited the hours for off-licence sales in the city and the Committee could also add any condition to a licence that it considered would support the object of the Act.

Sgt Paulin

- [18] Sgt Paulin is the Dunedin Police Alcohol Harm Prevention Officer. He said that between 6.00 pm and midnight people were more likely to consume their alcohol, at home. Having the purchase conditional on purchasing food at the same time was a big step forward.

Ms Millard

- [19] Ms Millard said they have clearly outlined what they would like to do. They hope to 'grow' this part of the business but it would not be the major part. At the moment it makes up about 2% of the income.
- [20] They have no idea what is going to happen in the future because of the pandemic and how the response is evolving to deal with it. The current situation is very hard on businesses generally. After the 2020 lockdown they managed to build up to about 80% of the pre-pandemic levels. This year has seen it go back again and with the rules now in place for premises they have fallen further behind.

DECISION

- [21] The Applicant originally sought this off-licence during the 2020 lockdown resulting from the Covid-19 pandemic. It was a way to diversify their business to stay viable. Their initial application sought to allow delivery of alcohol with food orders as well as off-licence sales when people were picking up orders from their premises. The volume of alcohol sold was dependent on the amount of food being ordered.
- [22] At the end of a hearing to determine the application the Applicant and reporting agencies met to discuss what they considered to be acceptable conditions for an off-licence. The conditions on the licence that was granted was based on their discussions.
- [23] The licence was issued was for the delivery of pre-purchased alcohol with food ordered from their premises. The decision noted that the Applicant could seek a review of the conditions at the renewal of the licence and in particular, the off-licence sale of alcohol at the time of food pick-up from their premises.
- [24] In the twelve months since the licence was granted there have been no reported issues. The Police commented that having alcohol sales conditional on the purchase of food was a 'big step forward'.
- [25] After carefully considering the evidence the committee has determined that the off-licence will be renewed for the full period of three years with the ability to sell off-licence alcohol with pick-up food orders.
- [26] We have heard evidence around the impact that Covid-19 has had on the Applicant's business. While we sympathise with the economic concerns of the Applicant, they are not relevant to the application of the Act.

- [27] The Licensing Inspector has rightly raised the concern of purchases of alcohol without food. This is a concern that the Committee shares. The Applicant has made it clear that their intention is for alcohol sales to always be accompanied with food purchases. To alleviate the concerns this brings in terms of alcohol abuse, the Committee is exercising its right to impose a discretionary condition that any off-licence sales of alcohol by the Applicant must be accompanied by a food purchase.
- [28] In making this determination we have also taken into account our local alcohol policy. In consideration of that policy, alcohol sales are not permitted after 10pm.
- [29] We are satisfied as to the matters to which we must have regard as set out in s.131 of the Act and therefore renew the licence until 21 August 2024, that being three years from the first anniversary of the licence. The replacement licence will be amended with the following conditions:
- (a) No alcohol is to be sold or delivered on Good Friday, Easter Sunday, Christmas Day, or before 1.00 pm on Anzac Day
 - (b) Alcohol may be sold only on the following days and during the following hours:
 - (i) With takeaway food orders:
Monday to Sunday 5.00 pm to 10.00 pm
 - (ii) With remote orders:
Orders including alcohol may be taken at any time on any day and delivered somewhere else for consumption off the premises on the following days and during the following hours:
Monday to Sunday 5.00 pm to 11.00 pm
 - (c) While alcohol will only be sold as part of a takeaway or delivered food order.
 - (d) The licensee must ensure that the provisions of the Act relating to the sale and supply of alcohol to prohibited persons are observed and must display appropriate signs adjacent to every point of sale detailing the statutory restrictions on the supply of alcohol to minors and the complete prohibition on sales to intoxicated persons.
 - (e) The Licensee must display on its website and in its catalogue and on every receipt issued for alcohol sold remotely:
 - i) The licence holder's name and licence number;
 - ii) The date on which the licence expires;
 - iii) A legible image of the licence, or a clearly identified link to such image, to be displayed in a prominent place on the website.
- [30] A copy of this licence must be displayed on the website for the premises as well as at the principal entrance which is off Lower Stuart Street.

IN THE MATTER of an application by Gifts of Distinction Limited for an off-licence pursuant to s.99 of the Act, endorsed pursuant to s.40 of the Act (remote seller), in respect of premises situated at 31 Elwyn Crescent, Green Island, and known as "Gifts of Distinction "

DECISION OF THE DUNEDIN DISTRICT LICENSING COMMITTEE

In accordance with section 191(2) of the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012 this application has been considered under delegated authority.

DECISION

This is an application by Gifts of Distinction Limited for an off-licence, endorsed as a remote seller, in respect of their premises situated at 31 Elwyn Crescent, Green Island, and known as "Gifts of Distinction".

The application is in respect of premises in which the sale of alcohol would be an appropriate complement to the kind of goods sold in the premises.

The applicant is relocating from elsewhere and requires a new off-licence to operate.

The application was duly advertised and no objection or notice of desire to be heard has been received. Accordingly, we deal with the matter on the papers.

We are satisfied as to the matters to which we must have regard as set out in s.105 of the Act and we grant the applicant an off-licence authorising the sale and supply of alcohol for consumption off the premises.

Although sales are made remotely, the licensee must ensure a certified manager is appointed to the business at all times.

Remote sellers have different requirements to other premises. The first is a response to the fact the buyer is not confronted at the time of purchase and to this end, regulation 14 of the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Regulations 2013 details the requirements imposed on licensees to ensure prohibited people do not purchase alcohol. This regulation is reproduced here for clarity:

14 Reasonable steps to verify that people not under purchase age

(1) The procedures described in subclauses (2) to (4) are reasonable procedures for the purposes of complying with section 59\(3\) of the Act (which requires the holder of an off-licence to take reasonable steps to verify that the buyer of any alcohol that the holder sells by remote sale (and, if a person other than the buyer is to receive it, to verify that the receiver) is not under the purchase age).

(2) In the case of an order made using an internet site, the procedure is to—

(a) ask the prospective buyer to declare, by ticking an on-screen box, that he or she is 18 years of age or over (and, where a prospective receiver is involved, that the prospective receiver is also 18 years of age or over)—

(i) once when the prospective buyer first enters the internet site; and

(ii) again, immediately before the sale of any alcohol is completed; and

(b) refuse to sell alcohol to the prospective buyer unless, on both occasions, he or she declares that he or she is 18 years of age or over (and, where a prospective receiver is involved, also declares that the prospective receiver is 18 years of age or over).

(3) In the case of a telephone order, the procedure is to—

(a) ask the prospective buyer to declare, orally, that he or she is 18 years of age or over (and, where a prospective receiver is involved, that the prospective receiver is also 18 years of age or over)—

(i) once when the conversation concerned begins; and

(ii) again, immediately before the conversation is completed; and

(a) refuse to sell alcohol to the prospective buyer unless, on both occasions, he or she declares that he or she is 18 years of age or over (and, where a prospective receiver is involved, also declares that the prospective receiver is 18 years of age or over).

(4) In the case of an order made on a physical order form, the procedure is to—

(a) ensure that the form—

(i) requires the prospective buyer to sign the form at a place at or near its end; and

(ii) contains 2 requests for the prospective buyer to declare, by ticking a box, that he or she is 18 years of age or over (and, where a prospective receiver is involved, that the prospective receiver is also 18 years of age or over)—

(A) one at the beginning of the form; and

(B) the other, immediately before the place on the form where the prospective buyer is required to sign it; and

(b) refuse to sell alcohol to the prospective buyer unless he or she has ticked both boxes and signed the form.

Regulation 15 describes the information to be provided by remote sellers. When using an internet website the licence holder must display prominently on the website, any catalogue produced and every receipt issued for alcohol sold remotely:

(a) The licence holder's name and licence number

(b) The date the licence expires.

(c) And in addition to this either a legible image of the licence, or a clearly identified link to such image, must be clearly displayed on the website.

The licence will be subject to the following conditions:

(a) No alcohol shall be delivered on Good Friday, Easter Sunday, Christmas Day or before 1.00 pm on Anzac Day.

(b) Orders may be taken at any time on any day

Deliveries may be made Monday to Sunday 6.00 am to 11.00 pm

- (c) The licensee shall ensure that the provisions of regulation 14 of the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Regulations 2013 relating to the sale and supply of liquor to prohibited persons are observed and shall display appropriate signs on the Internet web page detailing the statutory restriction on the supply of alcohol to minors.
- (d) The Licensee must display on its website and in its catalogue and on every receipt issued for alcohol sold remotely:
 - i) The licence holder's name and licence number;
 - ii) The date on which the licence expires;
 - iii) A legible image of the licence, or a clearly identified link to such image, to be displayed in a prominent place on the website.

DISPLAY OF LICENCE

A copy of this licence must be displayed in a prominent position on the website or, as an alternative, a clearly identified link to such an image to be displayed.

The licensee has advised that the business will take effect from 1 February 2022. The licence is dated accordingly.

- [1] This is a hearing to finalise an application by Great Taste Limited for an on-licence for their premises situated at 12 St Andrew Street, Dunedin, and known as “Great Taste Buffet Restaurant”.
- [2] Great Taste Limited has a single director, Ms Deqin Wang, and she and her partner, Mr Junlin Li, are equal shareholders.
- [3] A hearing into the matter was held on 22 October 2021 after both the Police and Licensing Inspector opposed the grant of the licence because they questioned the suitability of the applicant.
- [4] At the conclusion of that hearing the suitability of the applicant had been established however the Committee was concerned at the inexperience of the manager of the premises regarding the sale and supply of alcohol. The matter was adjourned for three months from 3 November 2021 to allow time for the applicant to employ a suitably qualified and experienced manager and to develop a staff training plan for other staff at the premises.

- [5] The Committee was informed that Ms Ding had been granted her manager's certificate and Ms Liu had been employed and that her manager's certificate was due for renewal. The matter has been recalled early to make a determination before Christmas.

Ms Ding

- [6] Ms Ding is the manager for the Great Taste Buffet Restaurant. She introduced their second manager, Ms Chang Liu. She said Ms Liu worked for a hotel in Queenstown for about six months but would let her continue to explain her experience.

Ms Liu

- [7] Ms Liu has been employed as the second duty manager for the applicant's premises. She has just had her manager's certificate renewed by the Dunedin District Licensing Committee.
- [8] She said most of her work since graduating has been in a hotel with a licensed restaurant. She has been trained to serve alcohol to patrons. In 2019 her employer decided to promote her to manager at the front desk. She said she did her License Controller Qualification (LCQ) in October 2019 and then assisted the manager serving alcohol and worked as a temporary manager on some occasions. She obtained her manager's certificate last year and was then promoted to duty manager at the front desk.
- [9] Ms Liu said she mostly worked in the evenings at this hotel which was when most of the alcohol was served at the restaurant. Part of the role was to help staff when they were having problems with patrons in the restaurant.
- [10] Since being at Great taste she has looked at the plans and the staff employed. Ms Liu has made a staff training plan based on the on-licence manager's kit. When there is a problem the staff will do what they can but will need to contact her to help solve the problem.
- [11] Patrons will need to ask for alcohol: it was not be promoted by staff. Ms Liu said she would be there the hole time when alcohol is likely being consumed in the premises. She said she would be there to assist with the alcohol sales.
- [12] When asked, Ms Liu said she used to work at the Nugget Point Hotel in Queenstown, but she would not be going back there. She is on a salary at Great Taste where she is working six days per week and six to eight hours per day. When she is not there Ms Ding will be present and if something happens, she is only about five minutes from the premises. The premises is not so busy that she will have difficulty getting time away.
- [13] Ms Liu said there is a small number of staff at Great Taste. She will carry out training will all the staff, including the kitchen staff, so they will all know how to deal with people wanting to drink.
- [14] The Committee asked about the types of patrons she was used to dealing with at the Nugget Point Hotel. She said they had between 4 – 500 people per day with a lot of them wanting to drink because they were on holiday. However, the systems they had in place meant there was seldom any alcohol related issues, especially intoxication issues.
- [15] Ms Liu was asked how they would deal with large numbers of young people arriving at the premises during orientation and re-orientation weeks. She said as people arrive, they need to have their vaccine passes scanned and identification checked. This would give the opportunity to assess their levels of intoxication. They also have strict rules regarding BYO alcohol.

- [16] Mr Mole commented that in the first hearing the applicant said their main customers were older people or and families with children. When asked, Ms Ding said this would still apply. Ms Liu said that it was an older style restaurant which did not attract younger people.

Mr Mole

- [17] Mr Mole commented that this is a low-risk premises and with the Police stating they did not receive calls to attend incidents. They now have two certified managers employed and he said there is now no reason for the licence to be granted.

DECISION

- [18] The Committee outlined its concerns in the decision after the October hearing. They related to the experience of the manager and ongoing training of staff.

- [19] The applicant has now employed a second, fulltime certified manager, Ms Liu, who has experience working in a hotel restaurant that served alcohol and then as a duty manager at that premises. Ms Liu presented a training plan and explained how this would be implemented.

- [20] This is a low-risk premises which does not tend to attract groups of young people. At the first hearing they committed to becoming a part of the BYO Accord which limited the amount of alcohol able to be brought into the premises.

- [21] We are now satisfied as to the matters to which we must have regard as set out in s.105 of the Act and we grant the applicant an on-licence authorising the sale and supply of alcohol for consumption on the premises, to any person who is present on the premises.

- [22] The applicant's attention is drawn to ss.56 and 57(1) of the Act obliging the holder of an on-licence to display:-

- (a) A sign attached to the exterior of the premises, so as to be easily read by persons outside each principal entrance, stating the ordinary hours of business during which the premises will be open for the sale of alcohol; AND,
- (b) A copy of the licence, and of the conditions of the licence, attached to the interior of the premises so as to be easily read by persons entering through each principal entrance; AND,
- (c) A sign prominently displayed inside the premises, which identifies, by name, the manager for the time being on duty.

- [23] The licence will be subject to the following conditions:

- (a) No alcohol is to be sold on the premises on Good Friday, Easter Sunday, Christmas Day, or before 1.00 pm on Anzac Day to any person who is not present on the premises to dine.
- (b) Alcohol may be sold only on the following days and during the following hours:

Monday to Sunday 11.30 am to 9.30 pm

- (c) The following steps must be taken to promote the responsible consumption of alcohol:

- (i) A range of food choices must be readily available at all times that the premises is open. Menus must be visible, and food should be actively promoted. A minimum of three types of food should be available. The range or style of food will be shown on any menu submitted. Alternatively, the range of food should include such items as paninis, pizzas, lasagne, toasted or fresh sandwiches, wedges, pies, filled rolls, and/or salads.
- (ii) A range of low alcohol and non-alcoholic drinks must be readily available at all time the premises is open.
- (iii) Water must be freely available at all times that the premises is open.
- (d) The following steps must be taken to ensure that the provisions of the Act relating to the sale of alcohol to prohibited persons are observed:
 - (i) The licensee must ensure that the provisions of the Act relating to the sale and supply of alcohol to prohibited persons are observed and must display appropriate signs adjacent to every point of sale detailing the statutory restrictions on the supply of alcohol to minors and the complete prohibition on sales to intoxicated persons.
- (e) The licensee must ensure that signs are prominently displayed within the licensed premises detailing information regarding alternative forms of transport from the premises.

DISPLAY OF LICENCE AND PRINCIPAL ENTRANCE/S

- [24] A copy of this licence must be displayed at the principal entrance(s) to the premises as outlined in the plan received by the Dunedin District Licensing Committee on 16 June 2021. The entrance from St Andrew Street is designated as the principal entrance.
