Specific conditions relating to notices and disputes

1. I may ask my bank to reverse a direct debit up to 120 calendar days after the debit if:
 - I don't receive a written notice of the amount and date of each direct debit from the initiator, or
 - I receive a written notice but the amount or the date of debiting is different from the amount or the date specified on the notice.
2. The initiator is required to give me a written notice of the amount and date of each direct debit no less than 10 calendar days before the date of the debit.
3. If the bank dishonours a direct debit but the initiator sends the direct debit a second time within five business days of the original direct debit, the initiator is not required to notify me a second time of the amount and date of the direct debit.
